Last week's scores
18's had a bye

35's have moved straight through to the grand final next week. As yet it is not known who they will be playing.

Premier League won 4-0 against Camden Haven

Wallis Lake secured the Mid North Coast Premier League Minor Premiership for the second year in a row after defeating Camden Haven on Saturday.

Reserves lost 3-2 to Camden Haven
The reserve grade side suffered a shock defeat for their first loss of the season with a depleted side due to injuries and first grade commitments.

Wallis Lake sit equal first with Port United to setup a clash for the Minor Premiership this Saturday at home.

Junior Presentation Day

Our presentation day is being held on Sunday September 14 at 3.00 pm. This is going to be held at Forster Ten Pin Bowling with food provided followed by the presentation.

Last Home Match

This weekend the Premier League and the Reserves will be playing the last match of the rounds at home. We will be having a sausage sizzle for all of our Junior players.

And if you come in your club shirt you will enjoy your sausage free!

So come down to Boronia Park this Saturday 23 August at 12.30 pm and help cheer them on.

Hope to see you there.
